Courses of Study

There are five patterns of study available to Exchange Students.

1 JEP-E (Japanese Experience Program in Kyoto – In ENGLISH)

This study course is designed for students with no Japanese language study experience (or for those who have only studied Japanese for a minimal amount of time) and for students who will not come to Japan with the goal of focusing on Japanese language studies. All classes are offered in English.

Exchange Students take classes in Japanese Society and Culture (Japanese History, Society, Economics, Business Administration, Law, Technology, Literature and Movies, Media and Arts, Pop Culture, etc.. Students also learn about Kyoto's rich culture and traditions, including Buddhist Thought. An introductory language class, taking place three times a week, serves as a first exploratory step into the world of Japanese.

For this study course, we strongly recommend that students whose native language is not English have previously achieved an English test score equivalent to TOEFL PBT 500.

Students are also eligible to register for a selection of English-taught classes in our regular Faculties/Graduate Schools.

If the JEP-E study course is selected on the application form, this decision may not be changed once your application form has been submitted. Please give very careful consideration to which study course you would like to apply for at the time of application!

Furthermore, students who have a one-year exchange term and initially register for this study course will continue taking JEP-E courses in their second semester.

2 JEP-J (Japanese Experience Program in Kyoto – In JAPANESE)

This study course offers classes taught mostly in Japanese. It is composed of ① Japanese language classes and ② elective subjects (mostly taught in Japanese) focusing on various aspects of Japanese culture and society.

Japanese classes are offered from the upper beginner to advanced levels, divided according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) "Can-Do" goals. Focusing on practical use of the language, students participate in field trips and give presentations. Elective classes make the most of the university's location in Kyoto, the heart of Japanese traditions and culture. Classes in Japanese Culture, History, Literature, Society, Religion, Economics, Business Administration, Education, Law, Science, and Pop Culture are offered. (In addition to electives taught in Japanese, we also offer a selection of electives taught in English.)

Students are also eligible to register for a selection of English-taught classes in our regular Faculties/Graduate Schools.

We recommend that students in this course have previously studied the Japanese language for at least 300 hours, or that they have previously achieved a level of N4 on the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JCLP). Furthermore, with regards to all JEP-J Applicants: if it is determined by our Japanese Placement Test that you do not meet the necessary Japanese level, you will be required to join the JEP-E study course.

Participants in the [JEP-J] study course who place in Class 4 or above on the Japanese Placement Test administered during Orientation Week are eligible to enroll in classes within our regular Faculties or Graduate Schools, in addition to subjects from the JEP-J curriculum. Students placed in Class 4 or above have freedom in the degree they wish to participate in the JEP-J study course. It is also possible to arrange one's schedule in such a way that there is a focus on selected Faculty/Graduate School subjects of interest.

*Students in JEP-E and JEP-J2 and JEP-3 classes are eligible to take undergraduate and graduate courses offered in English.

3 Registration for Regular Faculty Classes only

This option applies to Exchange Students who, based on the conditions set forth in a Student Exchange Agreement concluded between specific Faculties at both universities, may only register for classes in the Faculty to which they belong.

4 Registration for Regular Graduate School Classes only

This option applies to Exchange Students who, based on the conditions set forth in a Student Exchange Agreement concluded between specific Graduate Schools at both universities, may only register for classes in the Graduate School to which they belong.

Important: Regarding the Selection of Classes

<STEP 1>

First, please confirm whether you are eligible to register for classes in the Japanese Experience Program in Kyoto (JEP Kyoto) by asking the exchange program representatives at your home university. Some exchange students will only be eligible to register for regular classes in a specific Faculty or Graduate School, based on the conditions of the Student Exchange Agreement established between Ryukoku University and their home university,

<STEP 2>

- In the case that you are eligible to register for classes in the Japanese Experience Program in Kyoto (JEP Kyoto), you must select either [JEP-E] (classes taught in English) or [JEP-J] (classes taught in Japanese) on the application form. Please consider your choice very carefully, as you will not have the option to switch to a different course after submitting your application.
- The [JEP-J] study course offers Japanese classes for those who have studied the language for 300 hours or more. In other words, we also recommend this study course for students who have attained skills equivalent to level N4 of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT).

<STEP 3>

- Even if one applies for [JEP-J] (classes taught in Japanese), there is the chance of being asked to switch to [JEP-E] (classes taught in English) if one does not meet the required Japanese level upon taking our Japanese Placement Test (during the Orientation period).
- Those who, on the application form, select [JEP-E] (classes taught in English) or [Faculty Classes Only] [Graduate School Classes Only] (based on their institutional Student Exchange Agreements) will not take the Japanese Language Placement Test.

Flow Chart of Course Selection from Application to Admission

To transfer credit after the exchange period, students should check carefully which Ryukoku University classes are required, and which will be officially recognized, by their home university.
- JEP-J Applicants assigned to Class 4 or above are eligible to register for selected Faculty/Graduate School classes taught in Japanese and English, and JEP-J Applicants assigned to Class 2 or 3, as well as JEP-E Applicants, are eligible to register for selected Faculty/Graduate School classes in English.
- Students who are eligible to register for regular Faculty/Graduate School classes should be aware that there are some classes that cannot be registered for. Permission must be received prior to registering for any Faculty/Graduate School classes.

Exchange Conditions

The conditions of your exchange are based on the terms and conditions in the Student Exchange Agreement between your Home University and Ryukoku University. Please consult your Home University if you are unsure of these conditions.

Bank Accounts

You will need to open a bank account after your arrival so that your scholarships can be deposited and your room and utility expenses can be withdrawn directly. If you do not already have a Japanese bank account, please carry out the necessary procedures. [New accounts must be opened with Yucho Ginko (Japan Post Bank).]

The following are required to have your account established:

- ① The document [口座開設申込用紙 (Application for Opening an Account)] (Resident Supporters will provide assistance with this process during the Orientation)
- ② The document [預金口座振替用紙 (Bank Account Transfer Sheet)] (to be provided after Dormitory Entry)
- ③ A copy of your Residence Card, which will be issued to you upon your arrival in Japan.

Automatic withdrawal permission (of dormitory fees) takes approximately two months to establish. Until that time, it will be necessary to transfer fees yourself from a nearby convenience store. IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO PAY BY CREDIT OR DEBIT CARD. Also, please note that Japan Post Bank does not offer online banking services.

You may also like to open an account with an international bank (i.e. Citibank, Star, Cirrus and Maestro) before your arrival.

IMPORTANT: Common Financial Problems After Arrival

It is always the case at the beginning of the semester that a few students have a very difficult time because they are not able to use the bank cards which they have brought with them from abroad, and therefore are not able to withdraw the necessary funds for their everyday lives.

- ① Please be sure to confirm with your card company/bank that: (1) you will immediately be able to withdraw funds after arriving in Japan with your card, and (2) that you know exactly how to use the card. Please make it a point to remember your pin number to avoid having your account blocked.
- 2 It is sometimes the case that students do not inform the bank in their home country of their exchange study period, and their bank card is frozen due to sudden use in another country. Please be sure to inform your bank that you will be studying abroad to avoid this problem.
- (3) There is often a daily limit for withdrawing money internationally from one's bank in their home country. Please be well aware of what the daily limit is, so you can surely make initial dormitory payments, as well as have enough for initial living expenses. If your bank will not allow you to withdraw enough money shortly after your arrival, please be sure to bring sufficient funds with you.

Health Insurance

Under the Japanese Immigration Laws, it is compulsory for all Exchange Students who will be in Japan for at least three months to enter the Japanese National Health Insurance system, even if one has insurance in their home country. The insurance fees are estimated to cost 1500yen to 2000yen per month. Enrolment in Japanese National Health Insurance can be carried out at the Ward Office closest to your Japanese residence. If you feel it is necessary, you might also like to purchase international health insurance in your home country before leaving for Japan. More information on Japanese National Health Insurance will be provided during Orientation Week.
